

European Breakouts

These European players are poised for a breakout season in 2023

101) Oyvind Jarnes

PDGA Rating: 1021

Team: Latitude 64

Fairway: 73% (34 th)	Parked: 11% (25 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 44% (5 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 67% (13 th)

2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 821.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 102

The James Proctor look alike, Oyvind has been making a name for himself in Norway and Europe. Playing on GK Pro with Kristofer Hivju, Kevin Jones, and Calvin, Oyvind mentioned to Luke that playing in the States seems likely for Oyvind in 2023. With snap like Gibson, a build like Proctor, and trash talk like Calvin, I'm looking for Oyvind to make a big fantasy leap in 2023 should he make closer to 10 SkipAce events. With the PCS Sula Open in Norway being an Elite Series in 2023, that should automatically give Oyvind at least one more event in 2023, and definitely a home course advantage despite a 17th place finish last year.

102) Lauri Lehtinen

PDGA Rating: 1026

Team: Latitude 64

Fairway: 73% (37 th)	Parked: 10% (51 st)	Circle 1 in Reg: 38% (42 nd)	Circle 2 in Reg: 63% (47 th)
Birdie: 37% (33 rd)	Scramble: 57% (12 th)	C1x Putts: 83% (71 st)	C2 Putts: 19% (142 nd)
OB Rate: 8.6% (36 th)	Driving OB: 5.45%	PPI: 28.48 (43 rd)	Bounce Back: 35.6% (52 nd)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 9		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 43.8
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 794.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 84

The young Finnish player had a solid first year in the states, with an average finish of 43.8 over 9 SkipAce Events. With a H2H record against Vaino of 13-19-2, 4-5 Wins, and 6257-6287 Strokes, Lauri has shown he can stay competitive with the best in the world. During his first DGPT season in the States, Lauri started off the season with an average finish of 30.3 over his first 7 events, with his best performance coming at the European Open where he finished 11th. Lauri struggled over the last 2 events of the year, finishing 86th at Worlds and 96th at GMC. Lauri's schedule is packed towards the front half of the season, so look to pair him with late starters like Logan Harpool, Jakub Semerad, Evan Smith, etc. Look for Lauri to finish stronger than last season, and push for an average finish in the 30's after gaining a year of experience on the DGPT courses.

103) Jakub Semerad

PDGA Rating: 1017

Team: Latitude 64

Fairway: 74% (31 st)	Parked: 10% (44 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 37% (53 rd)	Circle 2 in Reg: 61% (72 nd)
Birdie: 37% (35 th)	Scramble: 39% (189 th)	C1x Putts: 77% (179 th)	C2 Putts: 26% (45 th)
OB Rate: 12.0% (141 st)	Driving OB: 7.54%	PPI: 22.73 (78 ^h)	Bounce Back: 33.0% (87 th)

2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 856.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 116

The feisty Czech Republic native, Jakob showed a lot of game throughout the 2022 season. His 77% C1x stats were not indicative of the incredible spin he could put on his putt, often to his detriment at the PCS Sula Open. Jakob has plenty of power off the tee, and all the requisite skills for a complete approach game. Look for him to focus on controlling the pace on his putt moving forward to avoid some of the nasty spit outs we endured in 2022, which should bump his numbers to the 80s to more accurately reflect his putting prowess. I like him as a definite streamer at European Open and PCS Sula Open for next year, with some consideration for the later US swing.

104) Knut Valen Haland PDGA Rating: 1014 Team: Innova

Fairway: 68% (138 th)	Parked: 8% (135 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 33% (128 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 55% (143 rd)
Birdie: 31% (124 th)	Scramble: 46% (111 th)	C1x Putts: 78% (165 th)	C2 Putts: 21% (124 th)
OB Rate: 12.3% (153 rd)	Driving OB: 7.95%	PPI: 24.66 (67 th)	Bounce Back: 21.0% (227 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 12		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 54.5
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 900.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 139

The Norwegian put together a pretty full season last year with a respectable finish for his first year on tour. With an average finish of 33.2 over the 6 Elite Series & Majors that Isaac Robinson missed last year, Knut looks like a nice combo pick if you drafted Isaac early.

Half Season Starters

These players can make a strong fantasy contribution for roughly half the season

105) Aria Castruita PDGA Rating: 939 Team: Latitude 64

Fairway: 68% (25 th)	Parked: 8% (17 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 28% (20 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 48% (24 th)
Birdie: 23% (15 th)	Scramble: 29% (40 th)	C1x Putts: 70% (33 rd)	C2 Putts: 13% (24 th)
OB Rate: 14.6% (63 rd)	Driving OB: 8.18%	PPI: 9.67 (22 nd)	Bounce Back: 23.8% (15 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 8		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 24.3
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 812.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 90

Perhaps the LiAngelo Ball of the Castruita sisters Trilogy trio, Aria is making major moves as the Castruita sister to look out for among the bunch of her, Melody, and Haley. The 2021 Amateur Disc Golf World Champion and Junior Disc Golf World Champion, Aria put up an incredible first year on tour in 2022. With an average finish of 24.3, her best finish was 7th at USWDGC. A perfect upside compliment to the experienced Juliana Korver, look for Aria to push for an inside top 20 average finish, and gain more bragging rights inside the Castruita household.

106) Paul Oman PDGA Rating: 1021 Team: Innova

Fairway: 70% (101 st)	Parked: 9% (77 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 34% (98 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 54% (155 th)
Birdie: 34% (72 nd)	Scramble: 51% (62 nd)	C1x Putts: 84% (44 th)	C2 Putts: 28% (33 rd)
OB Rate: 13.3% (181 st)	Driving OB: 8.28%	PPI: 26.61 (56 th)	Bounce Back: 36.4% (44 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 8		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 38.2
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 752.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 73

The Kyle Anderson of Disc Golf, Paul Oman takes a slow motion approach to his drives that yields more than serviceable power and efficiency. With an events page dating back to 2007, Paul Oman has played plenty of disc golf in the Indiana and Kentucky area. Over 56 Elite Series and majors, Paul has an average finish of 39.52 with 2 Top 10s and 8 Top 20s. Paul's best showing in 2022 came at the Preserve where he finished 16th after finishing 8th in 2021, so I definitely like him as an upside streamer at the Preserve again this season. For his 8 SkipAce events, Paul had an average finish of 25.0 over 5 of them, with an average finish of 59.0 over the other 3. Playing in almost half the SkipAce events last year, I like Paul as a nice compliment to Anthony Barela, as he made 3 of the 5 SkipAce events Anthony missed with an average finish of 25.7 over that stretch. Look to draft Paul late in your draft as other players will most certainly sleep on him, and watch him sneakily provide fantasy value for roughly half the year.

107) Ezra Robinson PDGA Rating: 1018 Team: Prodigy

Fairway: 74% (20 th)	Parked: 9% (100 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 36% (78 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 60% (76 th)
Birdie: 36% (52 nd)	Scramble: 47% (102 nd)	C1x Putts: 85% (30 th)	C2 Putts: 21% (121 st)
OB Rate: 13.7% (196 th)	Driving OB: 9.56%	PPI: 30.38 (35 th)	Bounce Back: 31.9% (99 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 5		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 43.8
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 819.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 98

The brother of Isaac Robinson, Ezra showed major promise in 2022. He played 5 Elite Series and Majors in 2022, with an average finish of 43.8. He tied for 3rd with his brother at New World Championships Silver Series event in November, and he showed some of the throwing that we are accustomed to seeing from Isaac. What Ezra doesn't seem to have that Isaac does right now is a C2 game. At 15% C2 during the New World Championship, and 20% during the 2022 DGPT season, Ezra has a lot of work to do to catch up to Isaac's level of 32% put up last year. Staying safe off the tee will go a long way for Ezra in 2023, as he almost reached 10% Driving OB, factoring into his near 200th place overall OB rate. He was solid from C1x at 95% for New World and 84% for 2022 DGPT. It may be a season too early to call Ezra a breakout candidate, but given how big Isaac blew up last year it would be a shame to let another Robinson brother league-winning season slip away from you on draft day. I like him as a definite streamer for Jonesboro and Idlewild. He's placed top 35 the last 3 years at Jonesboro, and the Robinson magic at Idlewild seems to work for him as well with a 34th place finish in 2022 after an 11th place finish in 2021.

108) Sarah Gilpin PDGA Rating: 940 Team: Dynamic Discs

Fairway: 64% (42 nd)	Parked: 5% (39 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 17% (53 rd)	Circle 2 in Reg: 35% (57 th)
Birdie: 16% (42 nd)	Scramble: 25% (55 th)	C1x Putts: 77% (4 th)	C2 Putts: 10% (40 th)
OB Rate: 9.4% (15 th)	Driving OB: 6.32%	PPI: N/A	Bounce Back: 15.8% (42 nd)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 8		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 24.6
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 817.3		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 95

Over 20 Elite Series and Majors, Sarah Gilpin has an average finish of 20.75 with 1 Top 10 and 10 Top 20s. The young player out of Iowa has been around the DGPT scene since 2018, but seems to primarily compete around the Midwest. With top 5 putting last season, and making the top 20 in half of her events through her career, Sarah seems to be a nice above-average option for the Midwest events in 2023.

I09) Scott Withers PDGA Rating: 1030 Team: Clash

Fairway: 68% (134 th)	Parked: 8% (105 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 33% (130 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 54% (161 st)
Birdie: 32% (98 th)	Scramble: 53% (41 st)	C1x Putts: 83% (70 th)	C2 Putts: 23% (83 rd)
OB Rate: 11.1% (102 nd)	Driving OB: 6.94%	PPI: 21.18 (86 th)	Bounce Back: 32.04% (98 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 10		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 46.8
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 818.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 96

A vet from Oregon, Scott played his first Beaver State fling in 2009. He has an average finish of 32.24 over 38 Elite Series and Majors during the last 10 years, with 5 Top 10s and 11 Top 20s. In 2021, Scott had an average finish of 23.0 over 6 Elite Series and Majors. Look for him to trend towards a half season starter with an average finish in the 30's for 2023.

I10) Austin Turner PDGA Rating: 1021 Team: DGA

Fairway: 71% (71 st)	Parked: 8% (127 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 37% (65 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 59% (83 rd)
Birdie: 34% (70 th)	Scramble: 46% (114 th)	C1x Putts: 73% (207 th)	C2 Putts: 21% (108 th)
OB Rate: 10.4% (80 th)	Driving OB: 7.29%	PPI: 31.02 (32 nd)	Bounce Back: 37.4% (37 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 10		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 48.6
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 836.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 109

Repping Discraft, Austin has been a cool cat on the scene for really the last 5 years. The leftie has been solid ripping the disc both forehand and backhand, and you can pair him with Drew if you dig a team with arm sleeves.

I11) Ellen Widboom PDGA Rating: 937 Team: Innova

Fairway: 61% (58 th)	Parked: 4% (50 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 18% (51 st)	Circle 2 in Reg: 36% (54 th)
Birdie: 16% (46 th)	Scramble: 36% (22 nd)	C1x Putts: 76% (6 th)	C2 Putts: 16% (12 th)
OB Rate: 11.1% (33 rd)	Driving OB: 5.73%	PPI: 2.87 (49 th)	Bounce Back: 15.0% (44 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 9		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 26.1
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 831.3		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 106

Experienced player running the Florida scene with an events page dating back to 2013. Average finish of 15.65 over 63 Elite Series and Majors during last 10 years, with a win at 2020 Idlewild, 2 Podiums, 21 Top 10s, and 45 Top 20s. One of her favorite courses is Idlewild, and she has placed top 11 there the previous 4 events. I like Madison Walker as a nice pairing to fill in her missed events with the exception of the European Open. Safe, experienced pick in this tier to be a good half season combo pick.

I12) Lykke Lorentzen PDGA Rating: 934 Team: Prodigy

Fairway: 64% (47 th)	Parked: 4% (46 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 19% (48 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 38% (49 th)
Birdie: 15% (47 th)	Scramble: 29% (42 nd)	C1x Putts: 74% (16 th)	C2 Putts: 11% (37 th)
OB Rate: 15.4% (67 th)	Driving OB: 9.09%	PPI: 4.26 (41 st)	Bounce Back: 16.5% (38 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 9		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 26.2
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 833.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 107

The Norwegian had an impressive first year in the states. Appears to be dating Bradley Williams. Look for that average finish to bump up a bit as she gets more familiar with the American courses. Surprised to see she didn't play PCS Sula open in 2022 after a runner up finish to Anniken Steen in 2021. Liking her around the same spot if the total events played stay the same and finish is around 25.0.

113) Randon Latta PDGA Rating: 1010 Team: Innova

Fairway: 71% (65 th)	Parked: 9% (93 rd)	Circle 1 in Reg: 37% (56 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 59% (86 th)
Birdie: 32% (104 th)	Scramble: 40% (179 th)	C1x Putts: 73% (214 th)	C2 Putts: 18% (160 th)
OB Rate: 13.6% (191 st)	Driving OB: 8.27%	PPI: 34.86 (17 th)	Bounce Back: 33.1% (86 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 12		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 53.9
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 880.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 126

Long Amateur history in Florida. Above average number of events played for players in this tier but right around the waiver replacement average. More value in deeper leagues. Solid option to play for a majority of the season outside the middle stretch of OTB Open, Portland Open, and the Preserve. Scott Withers & Cale Leviska could be nice fills for those events, or Alan Wagner made all 3 of those events for a deep league fill-in. Really looking at the putting numbers for Randon, as 2021 was his peak at 77%. Need to see more of his game, but looks like putting and staying safe from OB will be key to his fantasy development moving forward.

114) Robert Burrige PDGA Rating: 1008 Team: Lone Star

Fairway: 70% (87 th)	Parked: 7% (158 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 31% (167 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 55% (145 th)
Birdie: 30% (131 st)	Scramble: 49% (84 th)	C1x Putts: 81% (107 th)	C2 Putts: 22% (99 th)
OB Rate: 10.9% (100 th)	Driving OB: 6.58%	PPI: 26.67 (54 th)	Bounce Back: 29.5% (133 rd)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 8		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 61.4
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 941.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 154

Robert was called out by Simon on the Des Moines Challenge Rewatch Wednesday to put up a more consistent effort in 2023. After looking like one of the best players on the planet against Simon last year at the Des Moines Challenge, we'll look for Robert to become more consistent and push his average finish into the 40's. An electric college player, we know he has the talent. Let's see if he can meet Simon's challenge for 2023.

FPO European Streamers

With the addition of IR spots to SkipAce next year, these are some nice draft-and-stash players on the FPO side for the European swing

115) Heidi Laine PDGA Rating: 942 Team: Dynamic Discs

Fairway: 65% (40 th)	Parked: 4% (49 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 26% (26 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 50% (21 st)
Birdie: 17% (39 th)	Scramble: 32% (31 st)	C1x Putts: 59% (66 th)	C2 Putts: 8% (54 th)
OB Rate: 12.9% (45 th)	Driving OB: 8.29%	PPI: 15.49 (8 th)	Bounce Back: 17.1% (36 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 3		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 10.3
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 789.3		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 82

Finnish native Heidi Lane played 3 SkipAce events in 2022 for an average finish of 10.3. The Dynamic Discs rep, Heidi had a 7th place finish at the European Open, 15th at Worlds, along with a 9th place finish at the Des Moines Challenge. Heidi dominated the European scene in 2022, with wins at Prodigy Disc Pro Tour stops Helsinki Open, Oulu, and Tampere, along with the Estonian Open, Nokia Open, Tyyni Open, and Lahti Open. She placed 3rd in Long Drive contest at Worlds along with 11th in Putting. With a top 10 average finish over a limited sample size, Heidi is definitely worth a pick in the mid rounds as an upside streamer. Should she end up making a similar number of events as fellow Fins Eveliina and Henna, about 9-10, then she receives a huge fantasy boost as a potential top 30 pick.

116) Kaidi Allsalu PDGA Rating: 931 Team: Prodigy

Fairway: 58% (64 th)	Parked: 8% (20 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 25% (30 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 47% (25 th)
Birdie: 20% (23 rd)	Scramble: 37% (16 th)	C1x Putts: 70% (32 nd)	C2 Putts: 9% (51 st)
OB Rate: 7.6% (2 nd)	Driving OB: 4.44%	PPI: N/A	Bounce Back: 19.4% (25 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 3		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 11.3
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 794.5		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 85

Kaidi Allsalu has been rising in the Estonian ranks since 2016, with all of her victories coming in Estonia outside the Dutch Open in Rijswijk, Netherlands. Making a brief appearance in the United States in 2022, Kaidi placed 10th at Idlewild and the Preserve championship, along with a 14th place finish at USWDGC. A high-end streamer with only 3 events played last year, it's hard to recommend drafting and stashing unless we learn more about Kaidi's schedule in 2023. Switching from Latitude 64 to Prodigy Disc Europe in 2023. Look to target her for the events she makes in the States as a high upside play.

117) Anniken Steen PDGA Rating: 931 Team: Guru

Fairway: 58% (66 th)	Parked: 3% (58 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 16% (60 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 32% (65 th)
Birdie: 12% (61 st)	Scramble: 33% (27 th)	C1x Putts: 71% (25 th)	C2 Putts: 6% (65 th)
OB Rate: 11.1% (34 th)	Driving OB: 6.79%	PPI: 3.24 (48 th)	Bounce Back: 9.1% (65 th)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 2		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 18.0
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 850.5		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 113

Norway native won the PCS Sula Open in 2022 and placed 9th at the European Open. Also placed 27th at the Champions Cup Major. Back-to-back Norwegian Champion. Great option to draft-and-stash or pick up off waivers and lock after Champions Cup, and then drop after the European swing.

118) Katarina Staalesen PDGA Rating: 898 Team: Innova

Fairway: 58%	Parked: 0%	Circle 1 in Reg: 4%	Circle 2 in Reg: 22%
Birdie: 3%	Scramble: 6%	C1x Putts: 59%	C2 Putts: 6%

2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 1		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 14.0
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 864.5		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 119

The Norwegian placed 3rd at the PCS Sula Open and 14th at the European Open last year.

119) Rachel Turton PDGA Rating: 936 Team: Prodigy

Fairway: 63% (50 th)	Parked: 5% (40 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 24% (33 rd)	Circle 2 in Reg: 42% (39 th)
Birdie: 15% (48 th)	Scramble: 20% (66 th)	C1x Putts: 59% (68 th)	C2 Putts: 7% (63 rd)

2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 0		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: -
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: -

The UK native placed second at the PCS Sula Open in 2022. We'll see about the European Open next year.

MPO Upside Streamers

These players are serviceable fill ins with plenty of upside

120) Ty Love PDGA Rating: 1018 Team: Dynamic Discs

Fairway: 71% (68 th)	Parked: 10% (35 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 38% (46 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 59% (89 th)
Birdie: 37% (42 nd)	Scramble: 41% (165 th)	C1x Putts: 78% (159 th)	C2 Putts: 23% (82 nd)
OB Rate: 10.4% (83 rd)	Driving OB: 5.83%	PPI: 34.97 (16 th)	Bounce Back: 36.9% (42 nd)
2022 Skip Ace Events Played: 6		2022 Skip Ace Average Finish: 34.5
2022 Weighted Fantasy Points: 757.0		2022 Weighted Fantasy Finish: 76

The young gun out of Oregon, Ty Love was your 2018 Oregon's M15 Juniors Disc Golf Championship winner, and put up a 1033 Rated round at the 2020 Cascadia Challenge. The Dynamic Discs rep placed 26h at DDO, 29th at Portland Open, and 51st at Worlds in 2022, after placing 14th at DDO, 13th at Portland Open, 56th at Worlds, and 93rd at USDGC in 2021. A definite streamer for DDO and Portland Open, I'm excited to see more of Ty's game next year as a half season streamer.

121) Garrett Everson PDGA Rating: 1007 Team: Albatross

Fairway: 73% (39 th)	Parked: 7% (160 th)	Circle 1 in Reg: 31% (148 th)	Circle 2 in Reg: 55% (142 nd)

Back-to-back top 20 finishes at the Preserve in 2022 and 2021. From Sioux Falls, he traveled with Ezra Aderhold last season. With team Albatross he has a mixed bag, putts with Discmania P2. Definitely seems to be getting more comfortable on tour, so a name I'm really keeping an eye on this year to move towards a half season starter for next year. Sounds like he is in college as he ended his 2022 end-of-season Instagram post with #brokecollegelkid. Been there bro. We'll see if he can gain some more experience and stability moving forward. For now, more comfortable putting him as a priority streamer at the Preserve.

The kid from Kansas, Nolan made a name for himself when he was dubbed Vector on Jomez coverage during the Dynamic Discs Open. Catching the Midwest events, Nolan had an average finish of 25.5 over his first two events of the year, DDO and Great Lakes Open. He finished between 53-64 over the last 3 events, keeping him as an above average fantasy contributor for the 5 events he played. With an 18th place finish at DDO in 2021 and 24th in 2022, I think Nolan should be looked at as more of a priority streamer at DDO than a half season starter. Look for Nolan to bump those events played and putting numbers up before taking the next step as a fantasy contributor.

MPO European Streamers

With the addition of IR to SkipAce, these guys make great Draft-and-Stash options for the European Open and PCS Sula Open.

Labeled "The Specimen" by Brian Earhart for his exquisite form, Kristian placed top 10 at both the European Open and PCS Sula Open in 2022, along with a 3rd place finish in the Prodigy Disc Pro Tour rankings. Watching a couple of Kristian's form videos, it's clear to see why he is able to so effortlessly bomb...his legs. Kristian's ability to maximize the use of his legs and hips in his swing provides plenty of power on his drives and punch on his upshots. We'll look for Kristian to be a priority streamer for the European swing in 2023.

San Jose, CA native placed 21st at OTB Open along with 22nd at Great Lakes Open, and top 40 finishes at Jonesboro, Portland Open, and Idlewild. First year on tour last year, got that learning curve year out the way. Resigned with Kastaplast, seems psyched on social for a big year in 2023. Think we should definitely stream on OTB Open, and look for her to push towards a half season starter.

The leftie for Prodigy has shown a lot of promise. Placed 22nd-23rd during the first 3 SkipAce events of the year before announcing she would take a few months off and proceed to miss the rest of the season. I have seen no update that indicates she intends to play in 2023, but if she announces she intends to compete then I think she should be considered a priority addition. Perhaps a draft and stash, keep an eye on Heather's return to disc golf in 2023.

Philo is just a year removed from playing 8 Elite Series and Majors in 2021 for an average finish of 31.25. Watching his card at the 2021 Des Moines Challenge, he seemed to still have plenty left in the tank to me. 2022 was a rough year competitively, and perhaps commentary is taking more of a priority. Philo has historically been fantastic at Las Vegas, Waco, and plenty of other events the last few years. Curious to see what his schedule looks like for 2023. Hopefully we can see Philo push closer towards average waiver replacement value in 2023 to consider him a quality Masters Streamer.

166) Manabu Kajiyama PDGA Rating: 1051 Team: Prodigy

The highest rated PDGA player in the world right now, the smooth player from Japan is a guy to take a flyer on if he ever makes it to any of the DGPT events in the future. Just judging off his Instagram, the Prodigy player looks lean, athletic, and has extremely solid form. You don't need to draft him with no events here in the past or planned for 2023, but be prepared to drop some major FAAB if he ends up making any events in your league.

The Arizona native has a game as seasoned as his tan. Love the MVP plastic, he has shown top 50 average finish potential on more open courses. Placed 36th at DDO, 41st at LVC, and 49th at OTB Open. Perhaps not used to woods golf coming from Phoenix, he was killed at Ledgestone for 139th. I like him as a target streamer on more open courses.

Smaller in stature, but not in heart. Solid, smooth form for the Prodigy pro. Excited to see him gain experience on tour. Placed 38th at Ledgestone, 30th at Preserve, and 37th at Dynamic Discs Open in 2022. Seen him on some smaller tournaments, seems to be a strong woods player. Looking at him for Ledgestone, Preserve, and Idlewild next year, with an eye on overall game moving forward.

Noah came in with the last place fantasy finish for all players I used in the rankings for 2022. He had an average finish of 22.5 over the first 2 events before his fantasy value was demolished by a tough stretch to end the year, highlighted by a 145th place performance at Worlds. A year removed from playing 17 Elite Series and Majors in 2021 for an average finish of 56.57, Noah's last place fantasy finish is a great case study on using the average waiver replacement value scoring system. Noah's events played hurt his fantasy performance because his average finish was consistently 30 spots above the average waiver replacement value of 50.0. Look at the rankings between Noah, who played 15 events with a 75+ average finish, and Daniel Davidsson, who gets a top 100 ranking for playing just one event with a top 20 finish. Sure, Noah wasn't crushing it, but he was playing almost every week, so he was available as an Alternate to avoid getting you that last place finish which is typically over 100. Surely that has to provide some extra value, so perhaps the average waiver replacement value next year should be bumped higher simply to provide extra weight for availability. This is why I have Noah ranked above the Deep League Flyers, because he is on tour more and at 25 years old has the upside to push back towards an average finish in the 50-60's. I love this as an example of why understanding how your fantasy league works matters in fantasy sports. Eventually I would like to develop a tool that adjusts rankings based on league and roster size, so that you can see if it's more valuable to have an every-week starter like Noah or rotate a roster-slot with a higher upside streamer. He has the talent to be a solid deep-league weekly fantasy contributor, but it's hard to deny that just like his facial hair, his performance was everywhere last year, so shallower leagues it may be wise to save your roster-slot for more upside. I haven't seen any injury news or anything personal to suggest what attributed most to his lackluster season last year, so if you have a deep league where consistent tour availability is at a premium, don't let Noah's fantasy finish last year scare you off from drafting him to fill out your MPO roster.

After the PDGA ruled that transgender athletes won't be able to compete in the FPO division next year, Natalie Ryan should be off draft boards entirely. However, I'm not so confident that rule will stand through the year. The report used to back the ruling seems extremely shaky, and I could envision a scenario where we see Natalie Ryan competing in the FPO field on a revenge tour like Nikko's gone Super-Sayan. I don't think she necessarily needs to be drafted, but you can certainly take a late round flier on her and stash her in your IR spot if you missed out on any of the big European targets. She would definitely be a risk to not play for the entire year, but the bigger the risk the bigger the reward, and with her playing double digit events last year with a top 15 average finish, you know the reward is a player with double digit events averaging top 10. That's definitely a higher priority than the European players, so congratulations, if you made it this far you have a player I'm heavily targeting to stash with my last pick in fantasy this year.

Notable Mentions

Callie McMorran - Callie had a solid 2022 with an average finish of 33.3 over 13 Elite Series and Majors. Callie has undertaken the massive project of creating a Masters Tour. She mentioned this taking her focus next year and not competing next season on an interview with Smashboxx TV. Still repping Innova in 2023, adjust course if she ends up competing or if I misinterpreted her playing intentions.

Joseph Anderson - StatMando shouted him out for his 1106 rated round at the final round of the 33rd Earlewood Classic presented by John Bootlegger in early 2022. Placed 25th at Idlewild and 74th at USDGC. Definitely a name we will be keeping an eye on as Evan from StatMando mentioned he may make more events in 2023.

Cadence Burge - 2022 Amateur World Champion. No FPO Open events in 2022, but a lady to keep an eye on as she goes into her 3rd season playing for Discmania.

Hjalte Jensen – Back-to-back Danish Player of the Year recently announced a 2-Part American tour including LVC, Waco, Open at Austin, Music City Open, Worlds. Also is playing PCS Sula Open and European Open. A late add to the list, Hjalte looks like an intriguing streamer candidate.

Christine Jennings - With side hustles in commentary, the Par-Tee podcast, and real estate, Christine Jennings was a busy lady outside of competing in disc golf last year. Christine announced that she will be taking a full-time position with the DGPT and no longer competing next season, mentioning the financial, dietary, and routine struggles that come with a full-time touring career. Definitely can respect the need for some stability. Look for Christine to make her impact in disc golf off the course next year.

Zachary Nash – The Texan won the 2022 Lone Star NADGT National Championships. Placed 78th at the Open at Belton in 2022. Could be a guy to keep an eye on in the Texas swing.

Jennifer Sawyer – From Kalamazoo, Michigan, she didn't make any SkipAce events in 2022, but has historically been a nice streamer at the Great Lakes Open.

Matt Dollar – The most winning player in Georgia, he placed outside top 75 in 3 SkipAce events in 2022. Could be a deep league streamer to consider at Champions Cup Major, Music City Open, Idlewild, or Preserve.

Scott Stokely – Scott had a fantastic 2022 season where he was able to donate his winnings to charity, and have a lot of fun out there competing with the young guns. Perhaps the highlight of his season coming on GK Pro Skins, Scott is expected to play in Europe in 2023, so I have him off the rankings for this season. Tip of the cap to Scott Stokely for his performance in 2022.

Chloe Alice - Chloe was on an incredible upswing, just coming off a victory at the Chainhawk Open presented by Dynamic Discs before the PDGA ruling. She hit the coveted ace on hole 16 of Emporia Country Club last year, and had another top 10 at the Silver Series New World Championship. After the PDGA ruling on transgender athletes in FPO, she posted an announcement on Instagram that she will be taking time away for a while to reevaluate her options, mentioning a dream outside of disc golf. This may be referencing her Twitch career as she has been streaming recently. While on the uprise, she is not necessarily the immediate top-level fantasy contributor Natalie Ryan would be, and it seems disc golf may not necessarily be in her plans even if the ruling changes. I think we take a wait and see approach, but unfortunately, it's likely we may have seen the last of Chloe Alice competing at FPO.

Jake Wolff – Placed outside top 80 at Ledgestone and Worlds last year, but has crazy forehand and tomahawk game. Placed 8th at New World Championship Silver Series. Brodie mentioned he was a former baseball pitcher. Curious to see if he makes more Elite Series and Majors in 2023.

Kristofer Hivju – Tormund Giantsbane from Game of Thrones is a big disc golf fanatic, and the Norweigan has played the PCS Sula Open the last 3 years. Placing outside the top 100 the last 2 years, I don't have the guts to start him, but I may just pick him up to stash on my bench as a fun Alternate stash should one of my players end up with a DNF for that event.
